

Revelation 13

This beast symbolizes three things: the Revived Roman Empire, Satan, and the Antichrist.

1. A beast rising up out of the sea, having seven heads and ten horns...
  - a. The revived Roman Empire.
    - i. Dan 7, Rev 17
  - b. Having crowns because the empire is now in power.
  - c. The Dragon gave him power, throne, and great authority.
    - i. So we see this same imagery used of Satan in Rev 12.3
    - ii. The Antichrist accepts the offer that Jesus refused (Matt 4)
    - iii. 2Thes. 2:9 The coming of the lawless one is according to the working of Satan, with all power, signs, and lying wonders,
2. The Antichrist.
  - a. We see a person beginning to emerge from this picture.
    - i. His power, his throne, and great authority.
  - b. The Antichrist will apparently be fatally wounded and die, then return to life.
    - i. Zech. 11:17 "Woe to the worthless shepherd, Who leaves the flock! A sword shall be against his arm and against his right eye; His arm shall completely wither, and his right eye shall be totally blinded."
    - ii. Rev. 11:7 When they finish their testimony, the beast that ascends out of the bottomless pit kill them.
  - c. All the world... marveled and followed the Beast (willingly)
  - d. They worshiped the Beast saying... (2 things)
    - i. Who is like him...
      1. He is unique
      2. He is Admirable.
        - a. Marveled thaumazo, gk to wonder; by implication to admire
        - b. (v8) "all who dwell on the earth will worship him."
    - ii. Who is able to make war with him...
      1. He has "great authority."
      2. Rev. 13:7 And authority was given him over every tribe, tongue, and nation.
  - e. Then he opened his mouth in blasphemy against God, to blaspheme His name, His tabernacle, and those who dwell in heaven.
    - i. Abomination of desolation.

1. 2Thes. 2:4 He exalts himself above all that is called God or that is worshiped, so that he sits as God in the temple of God, showing himself that he is God.
  2. His blasphemy against God is not an incidental feature of his Kingdom but one of its main features.
- f. Blaspheming and persecuting
- i. Daniel 7:25 He shall speak pompous words against the Most High, Shall persecute the saints of the Most High, And shall intend to change times and law. Then the saints shall be given into his hand for a time and times and half a time.
- g. All who dwell on the earth will worship him, whose names have not been written in the Book of Life of the Lamb.
- i. 2Thes. 2:9-12 The coming of the lawless one is according to the working of Satan, with all power, signs, and lying wonders, and with all unrighteous deception among those who perish, because they did not receive the love of the truth, that they might be saved. And for this reason God will send them strong delusion, that they should believe the lie, that they all may be condemned who did not believe the truth but had pleasure in unrighteousness.
- h. He who has an ear is an alert to pay close attention.

2. The Beast Out Of The Earth.

- a. His person.
- i. Rev 19:20 identifies him as The False Prophet.
    1. Rev. 19:20 The beast was captured, and with him the False Prophet who worked signs in his presence
  - ii. The description, like a lamb, seems to indicate his religious character, ...he is named a prophet.
    1. He may put on a mild lamb-like appearance.
    2. Like a wolf in sheep's clothing, but you will know them by their fruit,
      - a. His words betray him, he speaks like a dragon.
  - iii. He shares a prominent place of leadership with the Antichrist
- b. His Miracles. 13-14
- i. Signs: Eng. something that suggests the existence of a fact, or condition.
  - ii. Fire from heaven.
    1. This is a great counteraction to offset the ministry of the two witnesses.

2. Our faith must be in the word of God.
  3. 2 Peter 1:19 We have also a more sure word of prophecy; whereunto ye do well that ye take heed, as unto a light that shines in a dark place.
- iii. He deceives...
1. Gk. planao: to (properly cause to) roam (from safety, truth, or virtue)
- iv. Make an Image.
1. Gk. Eikon: a likeness, i.e. (literal) statue, profile, or (figurative) representation, resemblance
  2. Daniel 3
- c. The requirement of worship. 15-17
- i. Breath to the image: The word is actually Pneuma which means spirit or breath.
    1. It is quite different from the word Zoe which means life.
  - ii. He causes all to receive a mark
    1. The mark: Gk charagma: a scratch or etching, i.e. stamp (as a badge of servitude)
      - a. "An impress made by a stamp" -Ryrie
    2. No one may buy or sell if you do not have the mark.
      - a. Money is tied to the mark, or all goods and services are tied to the government.
        - i. Digital Angel is an advanced technology company in the field of animal identification and emergency identification solutions. Digital Angel's products are utilized around the world in such applications as pet identification, using its patented, FDA-approved implantable microchip; livestock identification and herd management using visual and radio frequency identification ear tags; and global positioning systems (GPS) search and rescue beacons for army, navy and air force applications worldwide... ### About SARSAT (search and rescue satellite aided tracking)

International System

Cospas-Sarsat is an international, humanitarian search and rescue system that uses satellites to detect and locate emergency beacons carried by ships, aircraft, or individuals. The system consists of a network of satellites, ground stations, mission control centers, and rescue coordination centers.

When an emergency beacon is activated, the signal is received by a satellite and relayed to the nearest available ground station. The ground station processes the signal and calculates the position from which it originated. This position is transmitted to a mission control center where it is joined with identification data and other information on that beacon. The mission control center then transmits an alert message to the appropriate rescue coordination center based on the geographic location of the beacon. If the location of the beacon is in another country's area of responsibility, then the alert is transmitted to that country's mission control center.

The Cospas-Sarsat system provides a tremendous resource for protecting the lives of aviators and mariners that was unthinkable prior to the Space-Age. With a 406 MHz beacon, a distress message can be sent to the appropriate authorities from anywhere on Earth 24 hours a day, 365 days a year.

The Mark of the Beast is an international, search and destroy system that uses satellites to detect and locate individuals who have the Mark. The system consists of a network of satellites, ground stations, mission control centers, and destroy coordination centers.

When an emergency beacon is activated, the signal is received by a satellite and relayed to the nearest available ground station. The ground station, processes the signal and calculates the position from which it originated. This position is transmitted to a mission control center where it is joined with identification data of the individual. The mission control center then transmits an alert message to the appropriate government coordination center based on the geographic location of the person implanted with the Mark. If the location of the individual is in another country's area of responsibility, then the alert is transmitted to that country's mission control center.

The Mark of the Beast system provides a tremendous resource for dominating the lives of individuals that was unthinkable prior to the Space-Age. With a 406 MHz beacon, a disobedience message can be sent to the appropriate authorities from anywhere on Earth 24 hours a day, 365 days a year.
